Note: Page numbers of article titles are in boldface type.

A

Acepromazine, 757

Alpha₂-adrenoceptor agonists, 756–757

Ameroid constrictors, in portosystemic shunts, 893–894

Analgesia, multimodal, 749 preemptive, 749

Analgesic adjuvant agents, 756
  perioperative, in cats, 758

Analgesic agents, pharmacology of, 750–757

Analgesic techniques, 757–761

Anesthesia, for treatment of hyperthyroidism, 854 in portosystemic shunts, 890–891

Anesthesia/analgesia, interpleural, 761

Anesthetics, local, in analgesic techniques, 755
  perioperative, in cats, 756

Anti-inflammatory agents, nonsteroidal, 753–754
  perioperative, in cats, 755

Ascites, following surgery in portosystemic shunt, 896

Azotemia, as complication of thyroidectomy, 857

B

Bones, long, feline, fractures of, treatments for, 927–947

Brachial plexus block, 759–760

C

Canthal V-plasty, medial, 767

Cartilage eversion, 774

Cat, gastrointestinal foreign bodies in, 861–880 long bones of, fractures of, treatments for, 927–947
  lumbosacral/pelvic injuries, 949–962
  megacolon in, 901–915
Cat, gastrointestinal (continued) nasopharyngeal polyps in, 839–849 ocular surgeries in, 765–790 odontoclastic resorptive lesions in, 791–837 pain recognition in, 750 perioperative pain management in, 747–763 portosystemic shunts in, diagnosis and treatment of, 881–899 stifle joint of, surgical diseases of, 963–982 thyroid surgery in, 851–859

Cataracts, surgery for, 787

Ciliary body, pharmacologic ablation of, 783

Colectomy, for megacolon, 908–914

Collateral ligament rupture, clinical signs and diagnosis of, 967
  treatment of, 967–969

Colon, absorption/secretion in, 904 anatomy of, 902–903
  motility in, 903–904
  pathophysiology of, 905–907 physiology of, 903–904

Conjunctiva, grafts of, in corneal ulcerations, 778–779, 780

Cornea, surgery of, 772–776
  trauma to, management of, 772–776 ulcerations of, conjunctival grafts in, 778–779, 780 corneal-scleral-conjunctival transposition in, 780–782 linear grid keratotomy in, 776–778 superficial keratectomy in, 779–780, 781

Corneal-scleral-conjunctival transposition, in corneal ulcerations, 780–782

Cranial cruciate ligament rupture, clinical signs and diagnosis of, 964–965
  treatment of, 965–967

Cruciate ligament, cranial, rupture of, clinical signs and diagnosis of, 964–965
  treatment of, 965–967

Cystitis, bacterial, following perineal urethrostomy, 922

D

Dental nerve blocks, 760–761

E

Ear, middle, surgical anatomy of, 842–843

Entropion, surgical techniques in, 766–769

Enucleation, transconjunctival, 783–785 transpalpebral, 785–786

Epidural anesthesia/analgesia, 757–759 dosages for cats, 759

Esophagus, feline, foreign bodies in, 862–866

Exenteration, 788

Eye, feline, surgery of, 765–790

Eyelid(s), agenesis rotating/pedicle graft, 772, 773 defects of, sliding H-plasty for, 770–772 full-thickness resection of, 766 reconstructive procedures of, 769, 770 tacking of, 768–769
  third, gland prolapse, cartilage eversion, 772, 773, 774 surgery of, 772, 774, 775
  trauma to, management of, 765–766
  wedge resection of, 766, 769–770

F

Femur, distal feline, fractures of, causes of, 976
  clinical signs of, 976
  treatment of, 977–981
  feline, fractures of, 942–944

Fibula, feline, fractures of, 943, 944

Foreign bodies, gastrointestinal, in cat, 861–880

Fracture(s), femoral, feline, 942–944 fibular, feline, 943, 944 humeral, feline, 939–940 long bone, feline, biology of, 929–931 healing of, 939
    implant selection for, 931–934 treatments for, implant removal in, 936 operative considerations for, 929–939 perioperative considerations for, 927–928 surgical approaches for, 934–935, 936–938 patterns of, in lumbosacral/pelvic injuries, 956–958 radial, feline, 940–941 sacrocaudal, in lumbosacral/pelvic injuries, 959–961 tibial, feline, 943, 944–945 ulnar, feline, 940–941

G

Gastrointestinal foreign bodies, feline, 861–880 clinical presentations of, 861–862 hematologic abnormalities in, 862 in esophagus, 862–866
  in large intestine, 877–878 in small intestine, 869–877 Gastrointestinal (continued) in stomach, 866–869
location of, 862–878

Globe(s), blind painful, surgery for, 782–786 proposed, replacement of, 789–790

H
Hemorrhage, following surgery in portosystemic shunt, 895
Hernia, iatrogenic perineal, following perineal urethrostomy, 924
Hotz-Celsus procedure, 769, 770
Humerus, feline, fractures of, 939–940
Hypertension, portal, following surgery in portosystemic shunt, 895–896 Hyperthyroidism, feline, causes of, 851 recurrent, following thyroidectomy, 858
   treatment of, 851–852
      anesthetic considerations for, 854 medical options for, 852 postoperative complications in, 856–858 preoperative evaluation for, 853–854 surgical anatomy and, 852–853 surgical techniques for, 854–856

Hypocalcemia, as complication of thyroidectomy, 856–857 Hypothyroidism, as complication of thyroidectomy, 858

I
Incontinence, urinary, following perineal urethrostomy, 923–924
Interpleural anesthesia/analgesia, 761 Intestine, large, feline, foreign bodies in, 877–878 small, feline, foreign bodies in, 869–877 Intraocular prosthesis, 786, 787

K
Keratectomy, superficial, in corneal ulcerations, 779–780, 781
Keratotomy, linear grid, in corneal ulcerations, 776–778
Ketamine, 757

L
Laser surgery, ocular, 788
Lumbosacral/pelvic injuries, 949–962 conservative versus surgical management of, 953–956 fracture patterns in, 956–958 gastrointestinal injury related to, 951 initial assessment in, 952–953 peripheral nerve damage in, 951 physical examination in, 952 radiographic evaluation in, 952–953 sacrocaudal fractures in, 959–961 soft tissue trauma associated with, 950–951

M

Megacolon, classification of, 901–902 colectomy for, 908–914
diagnosis of, 907–908
idiopathic, 905–906
in cat, 901–915
causes of, 901, 902 secondary to neurologic or medical disease, 906 secondary to outlet obstruction, 907
treatment of, 908–914
medical, 908
surgical, 908–914

Myringotomy, in feline nasopharyngeal polyps, 844

N

Nasopharyngeal polyps, feline, 839–849 bulla osteotomy in, 845–846
diagnosis of, 840–841, 842
etiology of, 839
histopathology of, 841–842 history and clinical signs of, 840 myringotomy in, 844
surgery in, and adjunct treatment, 847 objectives of, 843
operative and postoperative complications of, 846–847 preoperative considerations for, 844 techniques of, 844–846 traction-avulsion in, 844
treatment of, 842–846

Nerve blocks, dental, 760–761 intercostal, 761
radial, ulnar, and median, 760

Nerve damage, as complication of thyroidectomy, 857–858

Nociception, 748

Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory agents, 753–754
perioperative, in cats, 755
Ocular proptosis, traumatic, 789–790

Ocular surgeries, in cats, 765–790

Odontoclastic resorptive lesions, feline, 791–837 adhesion molecules and, 818 and nonfelidae, compared, 823 classification of, 801–812
  clinical signs of, 819
  compared with other dental hard substance defects, 822–823 crown amputation with root retention in, 825–826
  diagnosis of, 819–822
  etiopathogenesis of, 793–795 extraction of teeth in, 824–825 histopathologic appearance of, 812–818 in endocrine and metabolic imbalances, 798 in viral infections, 798–799 laser treatment of, 826 oral examination in, 819–820 peculiarities of feline teeth and, 794–795 predisposition to, 800–801 prevalence of, 797, 800–801, 802–809 pulp response in, 818 radiographic findings in, 820–822 reparative phase of, 817–818 resoptive phase of, 813–817 restoration of, 824
  risk factors for, 795–798 systemic and medical therapies in, 826–827 trauma and, 795
  treatment of, 823–827
  types of, 791, 792–793

OP3 (μ) agonists, 751–752

OP3 (μ) antagonists, 752–753

OP2 (K) agonists/OP3 (μ) antagonists, 752

Opioids, 750
  perioperative, in cats, 753

Orbit, surgery of, 787–788

P

Pain, pathophysiology of, 747–749

Pain management, feline, perioperative, 747–763 principles of, 749

Pain recognition, in cats, 750
Parathyroid glands, autotransplantation of, 856 staged bilateral removal of, 856

Patella, luxation of, in cat, causes of, 973 clinical signs and diagnosis of, 974 imbrication in, 975
tibial crest transposition in, 975–976
treatment of, 974–976
trochlear recession in, 975

Polyps, nasopharyngeal. See Nasopharyngeal polyps.

Portography, in portosystemic shunts in cat, 886–887, 888

Portosystemic shunt(s), acquired multiple, 881–882 ameroid constrictors in, 893–894 anesthesia in, 890–891 categorization of, 881 clinicopathologic testing in, 883–884 diagnostic imaging in, 884–887 dissection of, 891–892
extrahepatic, 881
historical findings in, clinical signs of, 882–883 in cat, diagnosis and treatment of, 881–899 intrahepatic, 881
medical management of, 887–890 mesenteric catheter in, 886, 892 partial ligation in, 892–893 surgical management of, 891–895 complications of, 895–897

R
Radius, feline, fractures of, 940–941

S Sarcoma(s), injection site, feline, 983–995 clinical approach to, 985–987 epidemiology and etiopathogenesis of, 983–985
treatment of, 987–992

Scintigraphy, in portosystemic shunts in cat, 885–886

Seizures, following surgery in portosystemic shunt, 897

Sliding H-plasty, for eyelid defects, 770–772

Stifle joint, feline, dislocation of, causes of, 969–970
clinical signs and diagnosis of, 970
treatment of, 970–973
lameness of, causes of, 963–964 in collateral ligament rupture, 967–969 in cranial cruciate ligament rupture, 964–967 Stifle joint (continued) in stifle dislocation, 969–973 surgical diseases of, 963–982

Stomach, feline, foreign bodies in, 866–869

T

Thyroid surgery, feline, 851–859 surgical considerations for, 852–858 surgical indications for, 851

Thyroidectomy, extracapsular, 855 modified, 855
  intracapsular, 855
  modified, 856

Tibia, feline, fractures of, 943, 944–945

Transconjunctival enucleation, 783–785

Transpalpebral enucleation, 785–786

U

Ulna, feline, fractures of, 940–941

Ultrasound, in portosystemic shunts in cat, 885

Urethral stoma, stricture, following perineal urethrostomy, 922–923

Urethrostomy, perineal, 917–925 indications for, 917 postoperative complications of, 920–924 prognosis following, 924 surgical technique for, 917–920

W

Wedge resection, of eyelid, 766, 769–770
