INDEX

A AAHA. See American Animal Hospital Association (AAHA).
AAHA Foundation, 415, 416
AAHA Helping Pets Fund, 415
AAVMC. See Association of American Veterinary Medical Colleges (AAVMC).
American Animal Hospital Association (AAHA), 267, 282, 292 Compliance Study of Veterinary Practices of, 420–435 data on financial status of men and women in veterinary medicine, 334–335 American Pet Products Manufacturers Association, 423 American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA), 267, 273, 274, 291 data on financial status of men and women veterinarians, 334 Animal laws
for veterinary profession
implications of current trends in, 341–353 guardianship-related, 341–342 medical records–related, 345–353 noneconomic damages, 343–345
Annual program–based budget in succession planning, 362–363 Appraisal(s) business in small animal practice marketplace, 314 Asset(s)
sold in veterinary practice sales transactions, 316–317
Association of American Veterinary Medical Colleges (AAVMC), 267, 271, 273

B
Benevolent and hardship grants, 415–417
Black’s Law Dictionary, 342
Brakke Consulting Inc., 412 Budget(s)
anal program–based in succession planning, 362–363 Business appraisal in small animal practice marketplace, 314

C
C corporation issues in veterinary practice sales transactions effects of, 326–327
CareCredit, 412–413
Cash flow expected defined, 302
Cash-flow lenders in small animal practice marketplace, 314
Certified public accountant (CPA), 383
Change dynamics of, 356 Communication nonverbal, 388–389 open-ended questions in, 389–390 reflective listening in, 390–391 types of, 386–387 underlying premises for, 386 veterinarian-client-patient relationship–related, 387 Communication skills of highly effective practitioners, 385–396 empathy statements, 391–392 implementation of, 392–395 effective feedback, 394 identifying communication coach, 394 opportunities for practice, 394–395

Note: Page numbers of article titles are in boldface type.
Communication skills (continued)
  putting into practice, 393 setting communication learning objectives, 393 teaching methods, 392–393 videotape self-reflection, 394 videotaping, 393

Compliance, 419–436
  as process, 421–422
  call to action, 435–436 complacency about, 422–423 concerns related to clarification of, 431–432 continuity of care and, 426–429 crafting of compelling case for, 423–425
      defined, 419–421
      enhanced team productivity and, 431 gaps in, 429–431
      in dental prophylaxis, 433 in senior screenings, 434–435 in therapeutic nutrition, 433–434 success of, 432–435
  Compliance continuum, 425–426
  Compliance Study of Veterinary Practices of AAHA, 420
Confidentiality
  of medical records in veterinary profession, 349–352
Cornell University
  Office of Human Resources of, 400–401 Consortialists
  in small animal practice marketplace, 315
Cost-plus pricing, 289
CPA. See Certified public accountant (CPA).
CRAFT, 421, 423–425

D
Demand
  effect on veterinary profession, 270–271 Dental prophylaxis
  compliance in, 433
Dog(s)
  diseases in, 411
DVM Newsmagazine, 332
  data on financial status of men and women in veterinary medicine, 335–336

E
Economic trends
  effect on veterinary profession, 379
    demand, 270–271
    institutional, 275–276
  key trends, 269–276
  market structures and, 268–269 outlook, 276–278
  supply, 271–275
Empathy statements, 391–392
Employee(s)
  decisions made by, 397
Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), 11 Expected cash flow
  defined, 302
Extended year loan payment term
  in small animal practice marketplace, 313–314

F Fair market value (FMV), 301
Farley Foundation, 415
Financial status
  of men and women veterinarians, 333–336
  AAHA data on, 334–335
  AVMA data on, 334
  DVM Newsmagazine data on, 335–336 Financing
  in small animal practice marketplace, 311–312 FMV. See Fair market value (FMV).

G
GE Consumer Finance, 412
Gender shift
  in veterinary medicine, 329–339 cause and effect of, 337 financial status related to, 333–336 generation vs. gender, 330–331 in large-animal practices, 332–333 in rural practices, 332–333 part time employment effects on, 331–332 practice ownership effects of, 332
    studies on, 336–337
    time out from employment effects on career path, 331–332 Goodwill value, 300–301
Grant(s)
  benevolent and hardship, 415–417

H
Hardship grants, 415–417
Harvard University, 281
HELPETS, 417
Hill’s Pet Nutrition, Inc., 420 Hiring techniques
applications sorting through, 404
  assessing congruence, 406 down-to-earth, 397–409 decisions make by employees, 397 face-to-face interview, 405 interview questions, 407 method for, 400–406
pre-screen on phone, 405 recruitment, 401–403 rewards and recognition, 402 role models for, 401–402 selection, 401–403

I
Insurance
  pet health, 413–415
Investment value, 301–302

L
Law(s) animal
    for veterinary profession
    See also Animal laws, in veterinary profession, implications for, current trends in.
Leasing
  defined, 375
Liability(ies)
  sold in veterinary practice sales transactions, 518–319
Limited liability company (LLC), 376 Listening
  reflective, 390–391
LLC. See Limited liability company (LLC).

M
Market segmentation
  veterinary services–related, 292–294 Market structures
  effect on veterinary profession, 268–269
Marketing of veterinary services, 281–295 direct rivalry among competitors, 282–283
    market segmentation, 292–294
    marketing mix, 286–292
    placement, 290–291
    pressure from buyers, 285–286 pressure from substitutes, 284–285
    price, 288–290
    product, 287–288
    promotion, 291–292
    yield management, 292–294
Marketing mix, 286–292
Medical records
  for veterinary profession challenges of paperless practice, 349, 352–353 confidentiality of, 349–352 importance of, 346–347
    information in, 347–349 laws related to current trends in, 345–353
Mega Study, 268
Men
  in veterinary medicine, 330
    financial status of, 333–336
    studies on, 336–337
Modern business valuation theory
  in small animal practice marketplace, 310–311

N
National Collection Agency Association, 412
National Commission of Veterinary Economic Issues (NCVEI), 377, 412
Nonverbal communication, 388–389
Nutrition
  therapeutic compliance in, 433–434

O
Office of Human Resources of Cornell University, 400–401
Ontario Veterinary Medical Association, 415
Open-ended questions, 389–390

P
Pet health insurance, 413–415
PetHealth Inc., 415
Petplan, 415
Placement
  veterinary services–related, 290–291
Price
  veterinary services–related, 288–290
Pricing
  cost-plus, 289
Product(s)
  marketing of veterinary services–related, 287–288 Promotion
  veterinary services–related, 291–292
INDEX

Property rights
defined, 342

Q
Quality care crafting of, 419–436. See also Compliance.

R
Real estate
  for veterinary hospitals buying and selling of, 373–384.
  See also Veterinary hospitals, buying and selling real estate for.

Real estate investment trusts (REITS), 376 Reflective listening, 390–391
  REITS. See Real estate investment trusts (REITS).

Relationship-centered area described, 387

Renting
  defined, 375

Return on investment (ROI), 377–378

Rights
  property
  defined, 342

S
Senior screenings
  compliance in, 434–435

Small animal practice, 411–418 marketplace for evolution of, 307–315
    business appraisal in, 314 cash-flow lenders in, 314 corporate consolidators in, 315 determination of transaction price in, 309 extended year loan payment term in, 313–314 financing alternatives in, 311–312 maintaining practice profitability in, 315 modern business valuation theory in, 310–311 opportunities for younger graduates in, 314–315 rule-of-thumb era in, 309–310 third-party lenders in, 314 services of third-party payment options for, 412–417 “Staff Skills for Success,” 400–401 Succession planning, 355–371 annual program–based budget in,
    defined, 355
    described, 356–357
    examples of, 357–358
    functioning models in, 364–365 operational concerns during mergers, 365–366
    practice valuation in, 366–370 rules of thumb in, 358–359 urge to merge in, 363–364 veterinary practice value in, 359–362

Supply
  effect on veterinary profession, 271–275

T
  Texas A&M College of Veterinary Medicine, 411

Third-party lenders
  in small animal practice marketplace, 314

Third-party payment options for small animal practice services, 412–417 benevolent and hardship grants, 415–417
    pet health insurance, 413–415

U
  U.S. Supreme Court, 291

V
  Value(s)
    described, 300–303
    determining factors in, 302 fair value, 301
    goodwill, 300–301
    investment, 301–302
    standards of, 301–302
  Veterinarian(s). See also Veterinary professionals. selection of factors in, 287
  Veterinarian-client-patient relationship communication in, 387 Veterinary hospitals
    buying and selling real estate for, 373–384
    definitions related to, 375–384 overview of, 373–375 Veterinary practice(s)
    large-animal practices
      gender shift in, 332–333 maintaining profitability of
        in small animal practice marketplace, 315 ownership of gender shift in veterinary medicine effects on, 332 rural
gender shift in, 332–333
small-animal practices. See Small animal practice. value of, 297–327
C corporation issues effects on, 326–327
costs of, 319–326
in succession planning, 359–362, 366–370 expected cash flow and, 302
goodwill value, 300–301
in today’s marketplace determination of, 303–307 influential factors in, 300–303
investment, 301–302
risk associated with, 302–303
standards of, 301–302
with little or no salable value, 298–300 Veterinary practice sales transactions assets sold in, 316–317 C corporation issues in, 326–327 contemporary issues in, 297–327 in small animal practice, 307–315. See also Small animal practice.
liabilities sold in, 318–319 selling of portion of
costs of, 319–326
Veterinary profession animal laws in implications of, current trends in, 341–353.
See also Animal laws, for veterinary profession, implications of, current trends in.
economic trends effects on, 379. See also Economic trends, effect on veterinary profession.
gender shift in, 329–339. See also Gender shift, in veterinary medicine. men in, 330, 333–337
women in, 329–330, 333–337 Veterinary professionals. See also Veterinarian(s). highly effective
communication skills of, 385–396.
See also Communication skills, of highly effective practitioners.
Veterinary services costs to pet owners, 411 market analysis of, 281–286 marketing of, 281–295. See also Marketing, of veterinary services. same-day payment for, 411

W Women
in veterinary medicine, 330
financial status of, 333–336
studies on, 336–337
in work situation in United States, 329–330 Work
in U.S. women and changes related to, 329–330

Y
Yield management
defined, 293
veterinary services–related, 292–294